Weymouth, MA – Mayor Robert Hedlund and Steve Reilly, Recreation Program Supervisor, presented Weymouth resident, Kerwin Doherty, a Certificate of Recognition for his generous contributions and park improvements to the Bradford Hawes Park, which included a baseball mural, flag pole, and beautification efforts in and around the park.

Mr. Doherty was also recognized for his continuous efforts in promoting awareness of the widespread drug epidemic that we face locally, across the State and nationally.

"It is citizens like Kerwin Doherty that make a positive difference in our community," said Mayor Robert Hedlund.
