Weymouth, MA – On Friday June 22, Mayor Hedlund celebrated the opening of three new businesses in Weymouth's Jackson Square with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and the presentation of celebratory citations. The Bark Club, The Merry Café, and Beautiful Horizons are located at 668 Broad Street. All three businesses are women-owned and residents of Weymouth.

"I'm always excited to see new businesses open their doors in Weymouth and I'm especially pleased these businesses are all owned by female entrepreneurs." said Mayor Hedlund. "It's great time to open a business in Weymouth – people want to live, shop, recreate, and invest in our community. I encourage people to stop by the café to grab a coffee and take a look at what the stores have to offer, they're all great additions to the Town."

Prior to the recent redevelopment, 668 Broad Street was home to an early fire station, eventually relocated up the street to the current site of a VFW hall, and housed other businesses such a shoe factory and the Lincoln-Perrault Buick dealership. The building was then dormant for almost 50 years. "The project at 668 Broad Street is a great example of another successful mixed-use development in Weymouth - well-designed and well-executed," said Director of Planning and Community Development Robert Luongo.
