Weymouth, MA – On Sunday September 18th, 2022 the Weymouth Farmers Market will host its 2nd Weymouth Artisan Fair at Weymouth High School. This is rescheduled from August 7th, when both the farmers market and Artisan Fair were canceled due to heat. Operating in tandem with the farmers market, which hosts over 20 vendors each week, the Artisan Fair will host an additional 35 vendors from around the South Shore and beyond. Weymouth Artisan Fair vendors include artists and makers selling items such as crafts, jewelry, home décor, self-care items and more.

"The Artisan Fair was very successful in 2021." said Market Manager Casey Tocchio. "We wanted to give artisans and crafters a special day to sell their work at the Weymouth Farmers Market, as the market is focused mainly on food so we can only accept a few non-food vendors each market. We get a huge amount of non-food applicants apply to the market each year, especially after people were home learning new skills and crafts during the pandemic."
