Weymouth, MA – As part of Weymouth's 400 celebration, Mayor Hedlund and Superintendent Robert Wargo held a student art contest focused on historic sites around the town for inclusion in the Fiscal Year 2022 Annual Report. Each Weymouth elementary school made a call for entries and selected a 1st place winner. The winners then moved forward to the Mayor's Office where a grand prize winner and runner-up was selected by Mayor Hedlund.

"The entries to the student art contest were diverse and represented the high-level of talent within the Weymouth Public School community. We're proud to have WPS and our students included in the Town's Annual Report" said Superintendent Robert Wargo.

"Choosing a winner for the contest was not easy, the quality of work submitted was impressive," added Mayor Robert Hedlund. "In addition to picking the winners of the front cover and back cover, I decided to include each of the entries, adding them into the middle of the report for all to enjoy."

The winners selected by the Mayor are as follows:

Winner (Cover): Sydney Waas, Thomas V. Nash Jr. Primary School

Runner-up (Back cover): Abby McCauley, Wessagusset Elementary School

School winners:

Academy Avenue Primary School: Kyle Curtis

Thomas W Hamilton Primary School: Caitlyn Buccigross

Frederick C Murphy Elementary: Kayu Kwok

Lawrence W Pingree Elementary School: Kristen Emanuel

William Seach Elementary School: Sophie Geraghty

Ralph Talbot Primary School: Noah DeBerardinis
