Weymouth, MA – Mayor Robert Hedlund and his administration are excited to announce a series of Summer Concerts coming to Weymouth, beginning in June. The schedule is as follows:

- June 15th – 6:30-8:00pm. Location: King Oak Hill Park. Band: Pink Houses (A John Mellencamp Tribute Band)
- July 19th – 6:30-8:00pm. Location: Tufts Library/Weston Park. Band: Booty Vortex (70's Rock, Funk, and Disco)
- August 16th – 6:30-8:00pm. Location: King Oak Hill Park. Band: Martin and Kelly (Crossover Country)

"The Town of Weymouth is so excited to bring these three incredible acts to play in some of our community's most beautiful spaces," said Donnie Norton, Deputy Director of Event Facilities. "Each band is so different and fun that you won't want to miss a single one of these family friendly nights!"

The summer concert series will run in tandem with a robust summer schedule for Weymouth, which includes Food Truck Fridays at Town Hall, the Weymouth Farmers Market at Weymouth High School (Sundays 10am-1pm), the 3rd of July Fireworks, and more.
